A Few Thoughts from the Ex-Membership Services Guy

Where did the time go? It seems as if it was only yesterday I raised my hand at that fateful meeting and volunteered to act as Membership Services for the Wings of Rogallo. The round of applause fueled my desire to help the club, and in hindsight, I'm glad I took on the role.

Yet, at the same time, I was never happier to see Eric Carlson taking away the boxes of "stuff" associated with the role of Membership Services. Stickers, stamps, envelopes, applications, waivers...gone...gone from my apartment and never to be seen again. Did I mention stickers?
 Now, all that "stuff" is making itself nice and comfortable in Eric's house...I'm happy for Eric, and I think he'll do well...

Good luck, Brother Eric!

Febuary Flight Report

by JimBo

Colin, here's a flight report from last week. I had three days off and nothing to do, so of course I wanted to fly. I had my first soaring flight at Funston on Wednesday. I'd been there before, but as a H2. Flew for 1 1/2 hrs and had a good landing, though a bit far back. My buddy had to go down south so he and I decided to get some flying in along the way. We got to fly Marshall on Thursday & Sylmar on Friday before heading back up north.

Both flights were pretty much sledders but still fun to try new sites. Three sites in three days! Sorry, no pics, just memories.
